From the several Coffee-Houses in Cambridge;
and from the above-mentioned

AUCTION-BOOTH in Cooks-Row.

To the READER.

THis Catalogue is exposed to the View, submitted to the Censure of my Learned and Worthy Friends of this famous University, being by former Essays of this nature, sufficiently satisfied both of your Abilities to Judge, and Prudence to buy the choicest of all sorts of Books. I have adventured, on purpose to gratify (if possible the Curiosity of all of you) to intermix many new and considerable Modern Books (not probably hitherto known amongst you) with the Ancient, which honest End being happily attained, I shall be extreamly pleased, and as a further Evidence of my readiness to serve you, I subscribe my self as heretofore, your Humble Servant in the Affairs of Learning,

EDW. MILLINGTON.

This Auction will begin on Friday the 7th day of September, 1688. at the Auction-Booth in Sturbridg-Fair, in Cooks-Row, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, continuing to Five; and the following Days from Eight in the Morning to Eleven, and from Two in the Afternoon to Five, till all the Books are sold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. That he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books shall forthwith be exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the fourth part of the price of the Book or Books bought, be pay'd by the Buyer at the time of Sale, and that he give us his Name and Degree, and of what Colledg or Hall he belongs to (if a Scholar) and that the remainder of the Mony be paid within two days at the place of Sale, when the Book or Books shall be ready to be delivered.
